Washington Society Torn Up Over Dade and Dudine Army and Navy Officers Being Transferred.

The Senate Contingent Fund Extravagance-Soft Clerkships in the Senate to be Overhauled.

DUDES AND DUDINES.

Officers, Pets of Society, Ordered on Duty

Washington, March 29 -There is no abatement among the dudes and dudines of society over the announcement that sixty or seventy young sprig of officers in the army and navy, who have been assigned here for a number of years on nominal duty, and who have been the mainsprings of the german and progressive euchre, are to be ordered to the front, and the sun-barned boys who have been deprived of civilization for years ordered here. The ladies are holding up their dear hands in decided horror, and besieging Secretaries Endicott and Whitney to spare the lilies that have so long been planted here for the defectation of society. These Secretaries have been for more than a week be leged, night and day, by the sisters, wives, mothers and other female relatives and the ladies of society, to not send the dear boys away, but they have received no encouragement; the boys must go, and the favors be distributed.

It transpires that President Arthur sanctioned the retention of such army and navy officers here during his administration as could best keep up society and the fine fellows he delighted to see at his many receptions and dinners. It was a swell affair all through, but the day of reckoning has come and there are to be radical transfers. It is not contemplated that so many of the officers shall be kept here on alleged duty. The Secretaries say the men become incapaciated; that they have no practical experience, grow lazy, form habits of dissipation, and sow seeds of discontent in the service. For every reason the superior officers say there should be as few men assigned to Washington from the army and navy as possible.

Long lists of written protests have been received against the change, beside the verbal remonstrances, but it seems that there is a disposition to display a little discipline here where civilization, society, and the lawmakers may see it work and feel its saliant effects. It is raising a hubbub.

Troubled by Sherman's Resolution.

Special to the Sentinel. WASHINGTON, March 29 .- There are some very much vexed Senators in Washington to-day. The prospects of the passage of the Sherman resolution abolishing the soft places for ornamental clerks of superfluous committees annoys them. It took a tall lot of scheming to get those resolutions through, and it is a hardship almost beyond the limits of endurance to undo the arrangements that made these sinecures, Night and day during the past forty-eight hours, the beneficiaries of these adopted resolutions have been rushing about lobbying against the move of Senator Sherman, and also that of Senator Van Wyck, proposing to abolish the places created for revenue to clerks only. The people in the meantime are inquiring, "What fit of virtue has thus seized these Senatorial Casars who are trying to undo their work?"

Senate Jobs and the Contingent Fund. Special to the Sentinei.

WASHINGTON, March 29 -- Much is being said about the proposed investigation of the disbursement of the contingent fund of the Senate. There are a great many stories about extravagance and all that sort of thing, and insinuations that are not nice and pleasant. There can be no doubt that there has been a very loose rein around the Senate for a year or two, and a good deal of favoritism shown. In the event of an inquiry that is searching it is probable that a good many things will develop which will cause blushes to come to the faces of some men high in authority. It has been a long time since this matter has been looked into.

EX-SECRETARY THOMPSON.

No Apology Necessary in Regard to the Political Criticisms on Secretary

Lamar. WASHINGTON, March 29 .- In regard to the heated criticism of Secretary Lamar growing out of the order closing the Interior Department Thursday on account of the death of ex Secretary of the Interior Jacob Thompson, the Secretary says: "I have no apology to make for my action in this matter. The possible political criticisms referred to could never have suggested themselves to my mind. Mr. Thompson was Secretary of the predecessors thought his portrait worthy of a most conspicuous place in the office of the Secretary, among these many Republicans who filled this office. If they regarded his memory worthy of such honor, I could not do otherwise than further remember the office he once filled, and do honor to his memory exactly as has been the custom of the department whenever an ex-Secretary of the Interior has died. I never heard of an exception being made and know of no reason why one should have been made by me. On the subject of bonoring the memory of the their company, it was eminently proper that the usual respect for the memory of the de-ceased should be faithfully observed by this department. The duty of so ordering is not one requiring further explanation."

National Notes.

WASHINGTON, March 29 .- It is said a prop osition was submitted to President Cleveland vesterday by Dr. Demaga on behalf of the United States of Colombia having reference to the acquirement by the United States of commercial supremacy in the South American States. President Cleveland attended divine services to-day at the First Presbyterian Church. He was accompanied by his sister, Miss Cleveland, Miss Folsom, of Buffalo, and Miss Van Vechten, of Albany. The church was crowded.

DUELLING WITH CLUBS.

A Successful Lover Badly Beaten by His Rival-The Fair One Goes to His Bedside.

PITTSBURG, March 29 .- A duel with clubs was fought at an early hour Thursday morning in a ravine near the Finleyville branch of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, a short distance from Six-Mile Ferry. The Principals were Petro Cavanni, an Italian, and sufficient number of volunteers. Paul Candist, a Hungarian. Both boarded at the house of Javero Mandrisky, a Hungarian, at Six-Mile Ferry, and were in love with Malvina, the pretty daughter of their landlord. Cavanni possesses a little money, and is a leader among his countrymen. Can-dist is a foreman in a brick-yard. They were close friends until a short time after the arrival from Europe of Mandrisky's daughter. Cavanni speaks several languages and Malvina was greatly pleased when she heard that he was familiar with her native language, and they gradually grew to love each other. Candist was persistent in his attentions, but when he found that she preferred Cavanni, he became jealous and purposely insulted the Italian. The result was a challenge to a duel, which Candist accepted, naming as the weapons clubs about the thickness of a policoman's billy.

Thursday morning the principals and their seconds met. Candist proved himself an expert with the club. He struck his opponent several terrible blows and finally knocked him senseless, and then beat him while prostrate. The seconds interterred, and Cavanni was removed to a friend's house, He is dangerously injured. When Miss Malvina heard of the affair she hurried to the bedside of her lover, and refused to permit anybody else to go near him. Candist has disappeared.

Shot Through the Heart.

CLEVELAND, O., March 29 -For several nights past the family of W. D. Hoyt, 49 Sibley street, has been annoyed by a man looking in at the windows. About 8 o'clock this evening Mrs. Hoyt noticed the face at the window. Hoyt went outside with his revolver in hand. Seeing a man in the yard, he commanded him to throw up ais hands The stranger reached for his hip pocket and Hoyt fired, shooting him through the heart The dead man is a mulatto whose identity it is impossible to ascertain. Hoyt gave himself up to the police. He is a stenographer in the employ of the Standard Oil Company, and came here last summer from St. Louis, where he was employed by the Missouri Pacific Railroad.

Grant's Condition.

New York, March 29,-The usual weekly consultation on General Grant's condition was held to day. Drs. Barker, Sands, Sherady and Douglass were present. The discharge of the nose, which had produced symptoms which induced the family to send for the physicians last night, has been relieved, so that the General had a sleep of four hours, from 3 to 7, and naps of more or less duration during the appearance to-night, and was free from annoying discharge, which had troubled the family last night.

WINNIPEG, March 29-A dispatch from the West to-day says the mounted police, under Irvine, have evacuated Fort Carlton on account of its lack of defenses, and retired to Prince Albert, where they can defend the settlements and better protect themselves. The French Defeat at Lang-Son-Ferry's Downfall Predicted.

They are falling back on Long-Koi. The Franch loss in men and guns is unknown. The Chinese, it is estimated, are 50 000 strong. They menace the French lines of communication with the South. It is reported at Paris that General Briere De Lisle asks 20,000 rainforcements. The French reverses have increased the political excitement in Paris.
